MEMOIRS.

PREACHERS.

Rev. Chas. A. Fulwood.

Rev. Chas. A. Fulwood, D. D., was born in Houston county, Ga., in 1829. He was converted at an early age. He preached his first sermon on February 20, 1846, on his seventeenth birthday. He entered Traveling Connection in his native State. He served as chaplain in the Confederate army during the war between the States and received the "Cross of Hero" from the Daughters of the Confederacy at Miami, Fla., in May last. In 1873 he was transferred from the Georgia to the Florida Conference and was stationed at First Church, Key West. He introduced the work among the Cubans, and had much to do in organizing that work in Cuba at the close of the Spanish-American war, being the first Superintendent of Missions in Cuba.

His first wife was Miss Godfry. His second wife was Miss Mary Stanly. These good women in their order and in God's loving providence were a tower of strength to the Christian hero, who from boyhood to a ripe old age went forth hither and thither for sixty years as appointed by bishops. Never missed a call for sixty years.

During four year Dr. Fulwood served colored missions; during four years he served white missions. For nine years he traveled circuits. For twenty-two years he served stations. He was a presiding elder for twenty-one years; quite sixty years a Methodist itinerant. Truly he was an apostle. As were the twelve, he was sent to preach the glorious gospel of the Son of God, and like ten of the twelve he fell a martyr to his word. He asked no higher reward than to serve here in his office till called from labor to receive his crown yonder. He often said to his brethren that his desire was to cease at once to labor and to live—to preach his last sermon and at once report to his Master.

Dr. Fulwood had been sick for some months. He prayed that he might live to meet his brethren at Conference. The Master saw that rest was needed for the hero, that affliction was needed for the saint; we, his brethren, could not see need for the latter, but Christ sees as we cannot see. He, the Divine Artist, makes no mistake. He will perfect all His saints without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, and afflictions come to make perfect. Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth.

During the session of the Conference the names of brethren were called to be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations. When the names of all those who asked for the honorable position of superannuates were called, the Bishop remarked that he would call one other name to be considered, and then he called the name of Chas. A. Fulwood.

Dr. Fulwood came close to the chancel rail, faced the brethren that his feeble voice might be heard by as many as possible. He briefly recited most of the facts related above. From his feeble lips it was a love message to his brethren. When his message was well nigh finished he said: "Do not misunderstand me, I do not ask your sympathy for my sufferings, but rather your congratulations that I am so near home—so near to heaven. Starting to his seat, the hands of his brethren were reached to grasp the hand of the wellnigh glorified saint. Then, as the embrace of an old comrade was tenderly given and returned, and while other hands were reaching for the warm grasp of the soldier of the cross, his body gently fell into the arms of his brethren and the saint went up to be crowned.

"Servant of God, well done,
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle's fought, the victory's won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

Rev. Fayette Edward Shipp.

At the age of 43 years, in the prime of life and usefulness, Rev. F. E. Shipp, of the Florida Conference, passed to his reward from the parsonage in Lake City, Fla., March 6, 1905.

He was born in Madison county, Fla., February 20, 1862. His father, Fayette E. Shipp, came from Virginia to Florida in 1859; was married to Miss Jessie E. Witherspoon in 1861; entered the Confederate army in 1862; went to Virginia and died soon after the battle of Sharpsburg at the age of 28. In 1871 the widowed mother married Rev. T. J. Phillips of the Florida Conference, when young Shipp was about 9 years old.

As a boy he was obedient and upright. Those who knew him best testify to the fact that he was one of the best boys they ever knew. Blessed with a Christian home, he responded early to the love of Christ, and at 12 years of age took the vows of the Church and entered the service of the Master. After attending the country schools in his boyhood, he went to Emory College for three years, and then to Vanderbilt University for three years, where he graduated with honors, June 20, 1888. He was licensed to preach in 1885, and was admitted on trial in the Florida Conference at Bartow, Fla., January 9, 1889. During the sixteen years of his itinerant life he served eight pastoral charges, viz: St. Matthews, in Jacksonville; Fernandina, Bariow, Live Oak, Monticello, Fairmount Avenue, in Richmond, Va., Kissimmee and Lake City. At every place the church was edified under his ministry and many souls were converted to God.

Brother Shipp was happily married in Columbia county, Fla., October 22, 1890, to Miss Kate Mattox, who was ever afterward a true helpmeet to him in his ministry. Their home was blessed with five bright children, and these, with their mother, are left to mourn the loss of the devoted husband and father.

In purity of life and character we have never known Brother Shipp to be surpassed. Wherever you met him he was the same gentle, earnest, cheerful Christian. His preaching was greatly enforced by the character of the Spirit-filled man behind it. In demonstration of the Spirit and of power he preached the Gospel of Christ. His sermons aroused the conscience and fed the soul. As pastor and preacher he was a safe man. His friends were never afraid that he would do anything that might impair his influence or injure the Church. His was not the light of the meteor, that flashes for a moment and is gone, but it was rather the steady light of the star that guides the traveler safely along the way of life.

While Brother Shipp did all the work of a Methodist preacher and did it well, it was probably in pastoral visiting and the personal work connected with it that he was pre-eminently useful. He fulfilled his solemn vow to visit from house to house, and into the homes of all classes he went in the name of Christ to minister to his people. He was a pleasaut companion and a true friend. His kind heart and cheerful words made him a welcome visitor everywhere, and the people of his charge loved him as a brother.

It is a mystery to us that our brother should be taken at the very zenith of a useful life, when his family and the Church were so much in need of his services. There is a peculiar sadness about such a death, but it is evidently the will of God that some of His servants should go home in the ncontide of life. To them the infirmities of old age and the shadows of the evening never come. They are remembered as they left us in the strength of Christian manhood, and their influence abides like the brightness of the sun in his meridian glory. It was apparently a sad calamity to the early Church when the young martyr, Stephen, was taken from them, and yet from that death scene—made glorious by the shining face, the sanctified spirit and the heavenly vision—came Paul, the Apostle, and through him a thousand others, to bless the Church in after years.

Our dear brother has gone to be with Christ, but the example of his godly life and the fruits of his useful labors will abide with us as a priceless heritage.

Rev. James S. Barnett.

Rev. James S. Barnett, the subject of this sketch, was born in Marlborough county, South Carolina, in the year 1829, and came to Florida in 1845. He was married to Miss Amanda E. Tucker in June, 1848, and was converted and joined the Methodist Church in July of the same year. Not long after his conversion he was licensed to exhort. He exercised his gift in this relation for a number of years until, after the close of the war, when he was given a license to preach. He remained in the local ranks for a number of years, traveling as a supply four years before joining the Annual Conference. In January, 1886, he was received on trial by the Florida Annual Conference. Brother James S. Barnett was devoted to his work and beloved by his people in every pastoral charge he served. His preaching was strong and forceful, edifying the believer, reclaiming the backslider and convicting the sinner. Few men have been esteemed and trusted by the people amongst whom they have gone preaching the Gospel as was our departed brother.

Five years ago he was granted a superannuated relation. He died in great peace at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. C. Tedder, at Fenholloway, Fla., on May 17, 1905. He was prepared to go; his only regret was that of leaving his dear wife who had stood by him during all these years. He leaves a widow, daughters, a number of grandchildren, and a host of relations and friends to mourn his loss. But they, with us, rejoice that he has entered into his eternal rest; that he has received the highest plaudit of heaven: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant . . . enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

James A. Howland.

The subject of this brief sketch was born in Madison, Fla., about the year 1860. He came, through his father's father, of sturdy New England stock, through an honored ancestry dating back to the "Pilgrim Fathers," as is recorded on an unpretentious slab in the old cemetery near Salem, Mass. His mother was a Southern, if not a Florida woman, reared among primitive conditions, and, while from plain stock, was of stalwart faith and integrity. Among humble conditions, young James, the youngest of several children, was reared, with little beyond rudimentary educational advantages. But he was an apt and ambitious pupil, and made the best possible use of the common schools which were accessible.

He was converted in early life, and soon afterward felt himself to be called to the gospel ministry. With characteristic consecration and fortitude, coupled with a lofty sense of duty, conferring not with flesh and blood, he immediately accepted the call and, in the language of one of old, answered "Lord, here am I; send me."

To his mind, the call to preach carried with it the call to preparation, and with indomitable will and perseverance he set about at once to apply himself, and with such success as to mark him almost as a man of genius in the use of clean, chaste, forceful language for the expression of his more than average strong and logical thoughts.

He was licensed to preach at Madison, Fla., under the pastorate of Rev. A. A. Barnett, and admitted into the Conference the next year at Lake City. In December, 1885, he was first married to Miss Sophie M. Stokes, whose beautiful young life soon faded before his eyes, leaving him desolate and leaving to his care a little motherless babe. Nine years thereafter he was married a second time, to Miss Grace Myrtle Gilmer, at Tampa, Fla. As known to this body, his death occurred of heart failure during almost the closing hour of our Conference at Orlando. His aged mother, wife, two brothers and two little boys, one little more than a baby survived him.

But in the short space of a very few months, broken by the sudden shock of his going, his wife followed him, and after the lapse of a few weeks more his mother, worn and weary, laid down her burdens here, and joined her preacher boy beyond the fall of shadows and the weight of sorrows, in God's paradise above.

Bro. Howland was a kind, devoted husband, son, father, brother and friend. He lived a pure, clean life. He wrought well among us, serving some of our strong representative charges well and acceptably. Among his late works we may enumerate Key West, First Church; Hyde Park, Tampa and Quincy. Bro. Howland was a lovable man. His hands and heart were ever ready for tender, generous and loving ministrations, and now that he is gone, while we miss him sadly, we shall strive to emulate his virtues and join him in the innumerable circle of God's elect, when He shall call us hence.

PREACHERS' WIVES.

Mrs. Ellen L. Taylor.

Mrs. Ellen L. Taylor, (nee Phillips), the subject of this sketch, was born in July, 1844, on the Phillips plantation, in Duval county, Florida. In 1865 she was married to Anthony Brantly, of Madison county, who died soon after the Civil war.

On June 11th, 1895, she was united in marriage to Rev. John R. Taylor, of the Florida Conference. She departed this earthly life in peace, on May 19th, 1905, at Oclawaha Inn, Ocala, Florida, whither her husband had taken her for medical treatment.

On the day of her marriage to Bro. Taylor, who mourns her departure, she was spoken to in regard to the privations and trials incident to an itinerant's life, when she assured the speaker that she desired the opportunity of sacrifice and service made possible by such a life; that she had devoted too much time to worldly things, and desired to spend the remainder of her days in the service of God and preparation for the future life. Failing health rendered it impossible for her to continue long in the active work of the church, but she continued to suffer the will of the Lord, until called to the rest that remains for the people of God.

While in Atlanta for treatment, a few weeks before her death, her husband was arranging to return to his work in Florida, when disturbed by the thought that she should in any way hinder him from his work, she urged him to go to his appointment, adding that "If we meet no more on earth, I hope we will meet in heaven." The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. M. Poage, in Jacksonville, and her body was laid to rest in the old city cemetery. A beautiful life had closed on that Friday evening, as the sun went down behind the western hills; her released spirit, made pure by the blood of the Lamb, returned to the God who gave it. At last the weary pilgrim rests from her toils here, and her works follow her.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep!
From which none ever wake to weep."

Mrs. Ettie Haskell Gates.

Sister Gates was born August, 1875 in Chicago, Ill., and died at the home of Dr. Miller, near Palatka, Fla., Sunday morning, September 24, 1905. The family were from New England and descendants of Ethan Allen. When she was a child her parents removed to Nebraska and later to Texas. On December 22, 1899 she was married to Rev. E. J. Gates, of this Conference, and from that day forward she was a cheerful and successful helper in his loved employ. Though young when she entered the career of an itinerant wife, she brought to this larger field of Christian usefulness talents that had not been idle, for at eleven years she was converted and united with the Methodist Church, and from that time forward was active in church work. She was especially successful among the young, often leading them to accept salvation through Christ. She was teacher of the infant class in the Palatka Sunday school at the time of her death, and her last work in that church was the fitting up of the infant class-room. She was educated in the University of Texas, and such was her genius in mathematics that she was offered a position in that department of the university.

That which especially marked her career of helpfulness in the church was her proficiency in music. A voice full of melody was hers, and she sang and played to the glory of God.

He who knew her best testifies that "she was a good woman—highly endowed and did what she could."

Mrs. Florida Walker Austin.

Mrs. Florida Walker Austin, wife of Rev. George F. Austin, was born in Crawfordville, Fla., December 3, 1878, and died at the parsonage home in Dunnellon, Fla., March 25, 1905, in the twenty-seventh year of her age. She was the daughter of Hon. W. W. Walker, of Crawfordville, and niece of Dr. John L. Crawford, late Secretary of the State of Florida. She was educated in the public schools of Crawfordville and Gainesville, and in the West Florida Seminary at Tallahassee. Her childhood surroundings were such as naturally contribute to the production of refinement, culture and Christian nobility. To these influences she yielded from her childhood, early becoming a member of the Methodist Church and living an active Christian life to the end.

On April 24, 1902, she united her fortunes with Rev. George F. Austin, and so brought to the church by her marriage to an itinerant minister her rich endowment of mind and heart, and entered afresh upon a career of zealous service that undoubtedly re-enforced the efficiency of her devoted husband. Such was the strength of her character, her fitness by nature and acquirements, that she easily became leader in the various church enterprises of the ladies of the congregations served by her husband. Her gentle bearing, her sympathetic words, her lovely songs made such an impress as will long abide with those to whom she ministered, not alone as a blessed memory, but as a positive force in their lives prompting to a noble emulation of virtues so rare, so beautiful.

A friend who knew her from childhood, after speaking of her life work and referring to her illness, which was of short duration, said: "But she was ready. She was always ready. We knew her well and intimately all her life, and can testify to her preparedness. Such a life, though seemingly cut short, could not have been in vain. That she is safe at home with God and with dear ones who had preceded her, we have no shadow of doubt."

Mrs. Grace Myrtle Howland.

Mrs. Grace Myrtle Howland was born in Indianola, Iowa, February 18, 1871, and passed to her heavenly reward from the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Gilmer, in Tampa, Fla., July 21, 1905. She was religious from childhood, never knowing the day of her conversion, and joined the church while yet the dew of youth was on her cheek and the promise of a long life filled her heart. Sister Howland had a finished education, both literary and musical. She was fitted to adorn any station in life, and to meet its varied duties and obligations. She was an honor graduate from the East Florida Seminary, Gainesville, Fla., and the Chicago Conservatory of Music. She was a very successful teacher of music before her marriage to Rev. James A. Howland, May 19, 1893, and many of her pupils, some very prominent in musical circles, show the impress of her strong, yet gentle Christian character. When she became the wife of a Methodist minister, she consecrated all of her talents and culture and all the love of her heart to the Christ whom she loved, for the duties and obligations of her new office. For seven years she was the efficient helpmeet of her husband, and from all the places where she had visited came to her aged father and mother expressions of sincere sorrow and loving appreciation. Her life was beautiful, adorned with all the virtues and graces of Christian womanhood. From our standpoint, her life was altogether too brief, and her death untimely. From the awful shock consequent upon the announcement of the sudden death of her husband, she never recovered. Her health rapidly failed; that dread disease, pulmonary tuberculosis, did its work quickly. But, as "the outward man perished the inward man was renewed day by day." She talked calmly of dying, was perfectly resigned; having only one regret, and that was of having to leave her little son, Allen Gilmer. In this she had complete victory, and at the final moment breathed her pure sweet life into hands of her Savior. As the swan sings its sweetest song when dying, so the last hour was the serenest and most hallowed. At even' time there was light. We feel sure that her gifts and graces are being used in the upper world—that she has gone to

"Join the choir invisible

Of those immortal dead who live again

In minds made better by their presence."

Mrs. H. B. Frazee.

Stella Alliene Rowe, daughter of J. H. and M. J. Rowe, was born near Madison, Fla., October 18, 1871, and died at the home of her parents August 20, 1905.

January 25, 1899, she united in marriage with Rev. H. B. Frazee, of the Florida Conference, and entered upon the duties of her new relation with such fidelity and high Christian courage as to win the respect and esteem of a constantly enlarging circle of acquaintances.

She was converted early in life and was a member of the Baptist denomination until after her marriage, when she cheerfully and lovingly cast in her lot with the people among whom her husband labored as a pastor.

Her home was blessed with one daughter, upon whom she bestowed the wealth of affection and care of a wise Christian mother, and who was deprived of that care at the age of five and a half years.

Her views on religion were not shadowy and vague, but were broad and liberal. Her disposition was bright and joyous with the joy of conscious acceptance with the Most High.

In all the relations she sustained in life it might be said of her that she came not to be ministered unto, but to minister. But she is gone from us before her sun had reached the zenith of its strength. An obedient daughter, a devoted wife, a judicious mother, a Christian friend has passed away before her career had attained its climax.

We cannot understand all of our heavenly Father's meaning in these sad dispensations of His providence, but we hear a voice from heaven saying unto us: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

REPORTS.

SECRETARY OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Florida Conference Board of Missions had under its charge during the year 1905 forty-one pastoral charges to which appropriations were made, giving aid also to one district. The works may be classified as follows: 1. Poor and destitute fields largely dependent on our ministry for the Gospel; 2. Circuits needing temporary aid in supporting their pastors; and 3. Important locations in growing sections where there is good prospect of building up self-sustaining churches. Seven of these included county sites and four charges in our three largest cities. Many of these pastors have served under great difficulties and labored with self-denying zeal in spite of scant salaries, sickness and discouragement. In some charges we have barely held our own so far as members and figures tell; but God knows of the work done and he can sum up the final results. Some have been blessed with gracious revivals and good ingathering of members, appreciable increase in financial results and advance in material improvement. Some churches have been built or improved, parsonages completed and debts on churches or parsonages diminished. Received on profession of faith, 360, by certificate, 393, giving a net gain, after deducting losses, of 422. Out of forty-one charges aided, thirty-two raised in full the assessments for Conference claimants, Foreign and Domestic Missions, and eighteen of these all other collections.

The City Missions in Jacksonville and Tampa have accomplished great good; and the result has justified the faith and liberality of the local churches by whom they have largely been sustained. Plans are on foot for a larger development for next year.

Our Cuban work in Ybor City and West Tampa and in Key West, under charge of Rev. Joseph Norwood and M. Dominguez, have prospered. Brother Norwood seems eminently fitted for his important charge, and his plans for the enlargement and development of the work should have the hearty endorsement and financial aid of the Church.

A large and promising field for missionary enterprise has opened in the Italian colony in Tampa, and Rev. Everista Ghidoni, from Rome, Italy, secured for the work. He has begun with great encouragement. This opportunity to give the Gospel to the benighted foreigner in our midst appeals forcibly to our Church. These missionaries are supported by the General Board, but money is needed to furnish a suitable plant and facilities for inaugurating profitably the work enterprised. The Epworth Leagues of Florida have pledged $1000 to provide a suitable building for the Italian mission, and at the Church Extension anniversary held last night $1100 more was pledged.

The growth of the missionary spirit in our Conference is most gratifying, and shows not only the awakening of conscience on this subject, but the value of the circulation of missionary literature, and more systematic and determined effort to raise the collections. Tallahassee, Jacksonville, Orlando and Tampa Districts have raised in full their assessments for both Foreign and Domestic Missions; Gainesville District for Foreign, and has but a small deficit on Domestic; and East Coast District falls not far short of both. Of 127 charges, 106 have paid Foreign Mission assessment and 105 Domestic Mission, in full, with surplus in many cases.

The sum of $4922 has been reported for Foreign Missions and $5431 for Domestic. (Note—At anniversary a collection raised the Foreign Missions to $4982.70, being $32.70 above assessment, and Domestic Missions to $5532.94, being $32.94 above assessment, thus giving the Conference a surplus on missions.) We hear good reports from the work of the W. F. M. Society, and the W. H. M. Society, the first having raised $——— and the latter $6171.05, including local work.

There should be among us a more thorough study of missionary literature, and more general and methodical distribution of it among our people. Our excellent monthly, Go Forward, should be taken by every family, and the large and varied assortment of tracts and booklets on the subject of missions, obtainable from our mission rooms in Nashville, should be extensively used. Waiting on our knees to hear our great Captain's order to advance, standing in one place to do His bidding, and steadily going forward to do our part in the work of the world's salvation we will best fulfill our mission, advance His cause and kingdom and be entitled to hear His gracious "Well done!"

HENRY E. PARTRIDGE,

Secretary Conference Board of Missions.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Last year we reported that $92,192.82 had been collected during the fiscal year that closed on March 31, 1904, being the highest figure attained since the organization of the board. But we come to you with a much better report this year, for which we are grateful to our heavenly Father. During the fiscal year which closed March 31, 1905, the collection on the assessment for church extension reached the sum of $100,138.26, which is an increase of $7,945.44 over last year. In our own Conference we have an increase of $131.43. While this increase is not as large as it was last year, we "Thank God and take courage," as we are moving along toward the assessment in full, which we hope to reach this year. Let the pastors and presiding elders show the people the importance of this great work, and we are sure that they will respond to its needs. The assessment on our Conference is the same as last year, and is distributed as follows:—

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The report of Dr. Hammond, General Secretary of Education, shows a most encouraging condition of our educational work. Thirty-two church buildings have been erected the past year, at a cost of $434,458. There has been an increase of more than a million dollars in the value of all grounds and buildings. Our 185 institutions of learning, including missionary and affiliated schools, have an endowment of $3,400,462. The value of legacies and gifts for the past year amount to $291, 373. Of the 29,078 students in these institutions, 276 are looking to the ministry.

The report of the Secretary commends the colored work and gives hearty endorsement to President Bray in his canvass for the main building at Lane College.

Wesleyan College.

This old and established institution continues to increase its power for good by the erection of the Savannah Wesley Memorial Building, at a cost of $29,000. This building has afforded great relief to the literary, art and music department. The enrollment up to date has reached the gratifying number of 404. The religious environment of the young ladies in this school is of the best sort. The literary work is of a high order, and the musical department affords the very best opportunity for our Southern girls to secure a first class musical education. We most earnestly recommend the college to all of our people who send their daughters out of the State for an education.

Emory College.

Of this great college, we can say nothing better than to give a paragraph from the report of its distinguished president:

"The increasing popularity of Emory College is a well-merited expression of appreciation by the public of the advantages offered by that institution to the youth of our country. For years the literary and classical departments of Emory have stood among the foremost of our Southern colleges. It will be a source of gratification to the friends of higher education to learn that within the last three years more than forty thousand dollars have been expended on our departments of science, and that they have been advanced to an equal position with those of the best of our schools. The department of history and economics, established in 1896, has steadily increased in efficiency, and is now one of the most attractive and beneficial in our course of study."

We hope our people will carefully consider the claim of this college when they contemplate sending their sons outside of Florida for an education. Its history and work are the best guarantees that can be given to parents.

Florida Seminary.

Of our own Conference school, the pride and joy of all our hearts, we can do no more than endorse all that has been said by its popular and efficient president, and also by its competent board of trustees, in their annual report made to this Conference. The phenomenal success of this institution is a clear proof that it is a product of the providence of God. It is doing a great work for our State. The young men and women brought to Christ through its instrumentality, and cultured and educated in its halls, will help to shape the character of the future homes of the Commonwealth. We most earnestly commend its work to the people, and urge them to continue their loyal support, through their gifts and their patronage.

Ruth Hargrove Seminary.

This institution is not the property of our Conference; nor is it under our control, but it is within our bounds—hence for the information of the Conference and church of Florida, we call the following facts: There were enrolled last year 306 pupils.

At present there is an average attendance of 230 pupils. This school is doing great work in Key West, and with more adequate facilities will be a mighty factor in upholding Methodism and Protestant Christianity.

Recommendations.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. John A. Morrow to Emory and Henry Colleges as a student.

We also recommend that a course of lectures be given at the next session of the Conference, under the auspices of the Correspondence School, said lectures to be given in the afternoon of the days the Conference is in session.

We also recommend the appointment of Rev. S. W. Walker to the presidency of the Florida Seminary.

W. J. CARPENTER, President,
For the Board.

FLORIDA SEMINARY.

The Trustees of the Florida Seminary take pleasure in reporting to the Conference that the progress of the school since the last annual report has been nothing short of marvelous. The beauty and healthfulness of the location, together with the good reputation that the Seminary has established for thorough work and wholesome moral influence, has been productive of results in an increased attendance for the current year, and greater confidence by the public in the future success and permanence of the institution.

The Buildings.

The two original buildings of the institution have been improved during the year. The brick Seminary building, began last year, has been practically completed, and was used at the last commencement for the commencement exercises. This building has cost approximately $17,000; there still remains due on it $7,100, but a payment of $600 will be made on this at the next quarterly renewal of the note given to secure the loan.

A laundry has also been erected at the college, which meets an important requirement of the school. The laundry is not entirely the property of the school, but is owned jointly by the Seminary and its friends, who advanced money through a desire to see the laundry a success, which otherwise it could not have been.

Current Year.

The outlook for the present year is, that it shall be, by far, the most successful that the school has ever had. Up to the present time there have been 291 students enrolled, a large percentage of the old students returning. At the opening, in September, 1904, there were 205 pupils, and at the opening of the present term there were 230 pupils. The faculty of sixteen teachers, under the leadership of their president, Rev. S. W. Walker, A. M., are doing a high class of work in all the various departments. At a meeting of the Board of Trustees in May a uniform for both boys and girls was prescribed, but the adoption of it was not made compulsory. It is considered that the adoption of the uniform will be economical, and have the tendency to put all the students on an equal footing in the matter of dress.

Curriculum.

The curriculum of the school has been advanced to that of the regular college, as the demands of the institution required it. At present the institution is conferring the degrees of B. S. and A. B. in its academic work.

Board.

The boarding department is conducted in the spacious dining room in the girls' dormitory; the cost of board being fifty dollars ($50), in advance, for the term of seventeen weeks. The management of the school has a care to the wholesomeness and abundance of the food supplies, and the variety and quantity of food cannot be surpassed in any institution at the same cost.

Societies.

The young ladies of the school have shown a commendable and progressive spirit in the work of their societies. They have a splendid room in the girls' dormitory and have it tastily furnished. The society is a strong factor for the promotion of a social spirit among the young ladies. The boys also have their literary societies.

Equipment.

The equipment of all the departments has been improved since last year, but the apparatus of the institution is still deficient. Better equipment for the study of the sciences is needed, and the school stands specially in need of a large library.

Religious Influences.

Great consideration is paid by the faculty to the religious character and development of the institution. The influence of the pastor, Rev. R. Ira Barnett, over the boys and young men of the school is excellent. During the year a gracious revival was held in the school, and nearly every boy and girl who was unconverted before experienced a religious awakening.

Finances.

As stated before, the debt incurred for the erection of the brick building has been reduced to $7100, and will be reduced to $6500. One thousand dollars has been borrowed from Bro. J. P. Howland to pay the sundry bills incurred in the improvement of the buildings and the completion of the new buildings. There has been received during the year from land funds by Rev. I. S. Patterson, land agent of the school, the sum of $1915.63, and there is now on hand in said fund $581.25. There has been received and and paid into the treasury from other sources $4575.40, making a total of $6491.03 paid into the treasury from December 1, 1904, to December 1, 1905. This does not include the revenues arising from the tuition and the operation of the dormitory, and $1000 of it was the amount borrowed from J. P. Howland.

Reports.

The reports of the Treasurer, Financial Agent, Land Agent, President of the College and Board of Trustees have each been filed with the Board of Trustees, audited and approved, and are open for the inspection of any who have reason to investigate them.

Credit Due.

The fact of the great success of the Seminary under the management of its President, Rev. S. W. Walker, caused the Board of Trustees at a meeting in May, when the election of teachers occurred, to recommend the present President for the position for a period of five years. It was felt that this expression of confidence and appreciation was due to the President, and while we recognize him as a minister of the Conference subject to the appointing power of the Bishop, we felt only good could result to the institution from the step taken.

Conclusion.

We commend the institution and its faculty to the Methodism of Florida and elsewhere, as well as to those parents who have a boy or girl to educate and desire that the boy or girl shall be educated in both head and heart. The term education embraces body, mind and soul, and nowhere do we believe the combination to receive more careful consideration than at the Florida Seminary.

J. P. HILBURN,

Chairman Board of Trustees.

B. F. MASON, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

We, your Committee on Books and Periodicals, beg leave to report that we note with pleasure an increase in the business of our publishing house at Nashville to the amount of $28,362.02.

The circulation of the Epworth Era has increased largely, while that of the Nashville Advocate and Review remains practically the same.

Finding that Bro. Durrance, our Colporteur, is not physically able to do the work, we recommend that he be continued in office until he can close up his business, at which time he may resign and his place supplied for the remainder of the year.

We commend the work of Bro. J. B. Ley, editor of the Florida Christian Advocate, for the past year, and tender him our thanks for his fidelity. In spite of many obstacles the circulation of The Advocate has received a small increase.

We recognize the fact that it will be impossible for any editor, unless he has the support of the preachers and people, to make the Conference organ a success. We, therefore, bespeak for Bro. Pasco, the incoming editor, the hearty co-operation of all. We especially urge the pastors to send brief reports of their work to our Advocate, and that these be given prompt publication.

We have no report from the publishers of the Florida Advocate. We desire to mention, however, that we appreciate the fact that though their plant was recently destroyed by fire they have not lost a single issue of our paper.

We recommend to the Conference to make the Committee on Books and Periodicals a standing committee of four years' duration, beginning at next Conference.

J. B. MITCHELL, President.

TEMPERANCE.

We, your committee, rejoice to see a steady growth of conviction, sentiment and spirit in the temperance cause, our church being among the first to sound the note of warning and reproof against this mighty evil. The attitude of our church and of our Bishops being always against the evil of intemperance, we feel it is not necessary to go further than to heartily endorse them and to state that the Church is more for temperance than ever before—three counties having been voted dry this year.

We are opposed to a dispensary system or any measure compromising with the saloon.

We heartily endorse the Anti-Saloon League and recommend that Presiding Elders, in their several districts, appoint two delegates from each district, one lay and one clerical, to attend the Anti-Saloon League convention to be held in Florida this coming Conference year.

We gladly assure the W. C. T. U. of our hearty endorsement and co-operation in their temperance work.

Resolved, First—That we urge upon our representatives in the Congress of the United States to support the Dolliver-Hepburn bill and the Sharpe-Williams bill, which provides necessary protection for states and counties which have lawfully eliminated the saloons. That a copy of this resolution be sent to each of these distinguished men in Congress.

Resolved, Second—That each pastor, at a proper time, be requested to preach a special and distinctive temperance sermon to each of his congregations.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Remember the Sabbath day is God's unchanged law. The tenth commandment comes to us with the same force and power with which it came to Moses. No nation has long been able to disregard this law without paying a fearful penalty in the loss of character and manhood. God gave this law not for man's oppression, but for his greatest good. The Sabbath has its foundations deep in the constitutional nature of man. He who created man made him thus. So then he who would be strong in body must have a time for rest, and he who would be spiritual must have a time to think of God.

We conceive the Lord's day and the Lord's church to be so bound together that without the Sabbath there could be no church. For this reason we, as ministers of Christ's church, should resist any infringement, of whatever character, upon this sacred day. We deem it our duty to commend and co-operate with all organizations which have for their object the preservation of the Christian Sabbath.

We are conscious of the great fact that only through the ministry can the masses be reached. Therefore we deem the time opportune to urge upon our ministers to declare in no uncertain terms the sacredness of the Sabbath day. We view with alarm the extent to which works of necessity, so-called, and amusements and dissipations under the name of recreation have been carried. These constitute one of the chief enemies of our Zion and the shame of our nation.

Resolved, therefore, That we commend the law passed by our State Legislature, which aims at the suppression of all games and sports on Sunday; said law being found in the Acts of Legislature of 1905, Chapter 5436 (65).

Resolved, further, That we beg of that honorable body, the Florida Legislature, to take such action in the future as will protect from pollution our day of rest and worship.

We note with regret the army of working men who, in factory, shop and on railroads, are deprived of the blessing of the Sabbath day. Vast numbers of them do not toil from choice, but from necessity.

Resolved, therefore, First—That we express to them our Christian sympathy; (2) that we pledge ourselves and request our people to do all in our power, by reasonable sacrifice, to make these burdens lighter by abstaining from the use of Sunday mails, Sunday newspapers, Sunday trains and Sunday business of whatever character, except in cases of extreme necessity; (3) that we promise to help them in every way we can to secure to themselves and their families that priceless privilege, the Christian Sabbath.

We would recommend to all our people the sacred privilege and duty of home, rest and worship on the Sabbath day. No amount of church going can ever take the place of family communion with God. Let every Christian mother and father on this day shut out the world and shut in Christ, and thus secluded spend some time with the Father, even the God of the Sabbath day.

May we all so keep this day that when we beseech a throne of grace we may be able to add to our petition that ancient and honorable prayer, "Lord, we have kept thy Sabbath from pollution."

MEMORIALS TO GENERAL CONFERENCE.

The following memorials to the General Conference, presented by the committee on memorials, were adopted by the Conference:

Whereas, under our economy, unordained pastors are not allowed to administer the sacraments of the church, so often needed in every pastoral charge, nor celebrate the rite of matrimony; and,

Whereas, many of our pastors are unordained men, and thus our people are often deprived of these important privileges;

Resolved, That the Florida Conference amend Chapter 3, Section 4, Paragraph 120, (Page 58), by adding the following to that paragraph:—"in the absence of the elder to administer baptism and to celebrate the rite of matrimony, provided, that if such preacher in charge is an unordained man, this authority shall only last while he is in charge of a circuit, station or mission."

L. W. MOORE.

THE ANNIVERSARIES.

The Church Extension and Missionary Anniversaries, held on Friday and Saturday nights of the Conference session, were occasions of great interest.

At the former, Dr. Tomkies, President of the Board, presided.

While the report of the Secretary showed an increase in the amount collected over last year, yet this great cause has not received the attention that it deserves, and it should come to the front with our efforts for missions. Presiding Elder of the Tampa District, Bro. Patterson, made what he modestly called a talk, in which he showed the great possibilities of the Station Mission work in Tampa, and made an earnest appeal for help.

Mrs. Griffith, Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Home Mission Society, gave a brief account of their work.

The address of the evening was given by Dr. Dickey, President of Emory College. Our space forbids even brief extracts therefrom. At the close he called for contributions for the Italian work, and a ready response was given, amounting in cash and subscriptions to $1100.

A touching scene then occurred, when Rev. E. Ghidoni, the Italian Missionary, in his own tongue, thanked the congregation for their contributions to his work.

Rev. J. Norwood, the Missionary to the Cubans, interpreted for him.

Brother Ghidoni then sang one of our songs in Italian, the congregation joining with him in the chorus.

This Italian work was begun less than a year ago. We now have a Sunday school of 130 pupils and a day school of 100, with a steady increase, under the charge of Miss Brown, a consecrated teacher. There are 6,000 Italians in Tampa, and the great need is large school houses and a home for the family of Brother Ghidoni, who are now on their way from Italy to join him.

At the Missionary Anniversary, on Saturday night, Brother Dutil, President of the Board of Missions, presided. The Secretary read his report, showing that the Conference lacked about $87 of paying the missionary assessments in full.

Dr. Lambuth, Senior Missionary Secretary, then addressed the Conference.

Born in China, the son of a missionary, and engaged all his life in this work, Dr. Lambuth, comes before an audience with his head full of facts and his heart overflowing with love for those deprived of gospel privileges, whether at home or abroad. One never wearies of listening to him, his ready utterance and magnetic voice holding the most indifferent hearer. At the close of his address a collection was taken to cover the deficiency in our missionary collections, and more than the amount was raised in a few minutes.

We had more singing from Brother Ghidoni, a hymn in Spanish from our Cuban Missionaries, Brothers Norwood and Dominguez; the doxology was then sung in three languages and the benediction pronounced.

RESOLUTIONS.

Preamble and resolutions in the interest of our educational work at Sutherland, Fla.:

Whereas, In the providence of God, we have been able to re-establish the educational work of the Florida Conference, M. E. Church, South, at Sutherland, Fla., under the corporate name of the Florida Seminary; and

Whereas, The said Seminary has won its way to the hearts of our people, gaining for itself a patronage that has gone far beyond our most sanguine expectations, filling the dormitories to their utmost capacity, forcing the president, Rev. S. W. Walker, to put many of the boys in private homes, while many others had to be turned away for lack of accommodation; and

Whereas, We are face to face with the great responsibility of meeting the pressing demands which are upon us; therefore be it resolved:

1. That the Conference appoint a day, to be observed as educational day, to raise funds to build a larger dormitory to meet the present and future requirements of the school and further increase its patronage.

2. That said educational day shall be observed by each and every pastor in the Florida Conference, beginning not earlier than the 31st of May nor ending later than the 30th of September of each year, until these resolutions are annulled by the Conference.

3. That in order to meet the end desired each Presiding Elder in the Conference is hereby requested to see that all the pastors in their districts observe educational day between the dates heretofore mentioned.

4. Pastors shall co-operate with their Presiding Elders and the president of the Florida Seminary in observing said educational day.

5. All moneys raised for the Florida Seminary shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees.

Whereas, high officials of the Mormon Church have admitted in their testimony before a committee of the United States Senate that for years the law of the State of Utah prohibiting polygamy has been constantly violated by their fellow Mormons and themselves; and

Whereas, The solemn pledges given the President of the United States by the head of the Mormon Church and other high officials of the same, to the effect that they would cease polygamous marriages and practices, has, according to their own testimony, been violated; and

Whereas, Reed Smoot, an apostle of the Mormon Church and United States Senator-elect from the State of Utah, is subservient to the hierarchy of this Church, and has connived at the unlawful practices of the same; therefore Resolved, First—That we do hereby memorialize the Senate of the United States in the name of all our American homes and the sacred marital ties of the same, to declare vacant the seat of Reed Smoot, Senator from the State of Utah.

Resolved, Second—That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to submit to the several States of the Union an amendment to the Constitution of the United States prohibiting polygamous practices in any territory of the Union.

The Board of Missions, with great interest, has listened to a clear statement of the plans and hopes of Brother Norwood for enlarging and deepening the work among the Spanish-speaking element of Tampa and vicinity, by means of institutional work, now consisting of a night school and reading and entertainment rooms, and, as soon as the means can be raised, to embrace a gymnasium, bathing tank, etc., and later on an Industrial Home for children and youth.

It heartily endorses the movement and recommends that the Conference pass the following:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Florida Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, hail with pleasure what seems (or promises) to be a new era in the history of our Cuban work in Tampa and vicinity, and hereby approve of the plans marked out by the Rev. Joseph Norwood, and extend to him a cordial invitation to visit our respective charges in the interests of that very important movement, and tender him our pulpits that he may lay the enterprise before our respective congregations.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The work of the American Bible Society cannot be duplicated on this continent, in translating the Word of God into more than three hundred languages and dialects, a valuable aid to our work in the foreign fields and in providing the Bible for the poor in our own land. ### EPWORTH LEAGUE.

To the Bishop and Members of the Florida Annual Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—We, your committee, submit this, our annual report for your consideration. This has been a prosperous year in our League work. The work of the League, while not what it must and will be made, is in a growing condition. We plead for the same recognition for the League as is accorded the Sunday School. They are twin sisters in the Church family. The real work, of course, devolves upon the pastor and president of the League, but they can do nothing without the active cooperation of the church membership. The sentiment of the body at large must be favorable to the League for it to do its best work.

The Epworth Era, the Reading Course and the Culture Courses prescribed by the General Board, for our League work are indispensable to our best usefulness. The fourth department, or Department of Missions, has met with general favor among our people.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. MICKLER, President.

N. H. WILLIAMS, Secretary.
